

Developer – PHP (Junior)

Junior developer on a well-established platform to play a role in supporting the existing system alongside renovation initiatives.

Salary Range: R25k – R45k per month, depending on skills and experience.

Job Responsibilities:

- Write code, testing and deployment.
- Performing technical analysis of business requirements, producing technical documentation.
- Investigation of system issues and bug identification, strong problem solving.
- Monitoring of services and systems within the infrastructure.
- Ability to work independently

Job Requirements:

- A university degree or studying towards a relevant degree e.g. Computer Science, Information Systems, Informatics
- 2+ years development experience, minimum 1 year PHP experience.
- Experience working with relational databases (preferably MySQL, Postgres, MariaDB)
- Experience of using frameworks like Laravel or Lumen advantageous.
- Experience in Javascript advantageous.
- Technical understanding of cloud computing.

Attributes:

- Self-managed
- Team player
- Uses own initiative
- Flexibility – positive response to change
- Ability to work under pressure and work according to deadlines
- Organised
- Assertive and Proactive
- Forward thinking/continuous improvement
- Results oriented – need to know what is required and take appropriate action
- Open to constructive criticism

Company Relations:

- Comply with all company policies and operate within the given guidelines
- Work with and develop positive relationships with other employees and external clients/suppliers

This chart shows the most popular skills for this job and what effect each skill has on pay.